

Testimonial letter for Andrea Strom-Rancourt

Greetings,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my dear friend and coach Andrea Strom-Rancourt for her talented coaching abilities and her undeniable wisdom. I am extremely grateful to have had her enter my life and her continuing influence continues to this day. She has been a strong force in my decision making and gave me the courage to believe in myself. I am convinced that without her outstanding coaching I would not be where I am today. As a business woman I am commanding the highest commission in my field and I am sure that this would not have happened if Andrea was not there to encourage me and give me the know-how that a great coach is able to deliver.

Every great athlete or anyone that accomplishes superior feats is without a doubt brought to amazing levels with the help of a coach or mentor. This is a fact. Why struggle alone when just at your fingertips is someone as caring, genuine, smart and talented as Andrea. She helped me in every area of my life and taught me how to get things done and put me in contact with the right people. It is a priceless investment to invest in oneself. At times we might feel like it is selfish or unnecessary, but as someone who has received coaching I could not disagree more, in fact it would be quite selfish to not give yourself this gift especially if you are considering this option. What greater act of love to give yourself the power to be all that you ever dreamed to be and have behind you someone showing you how this is done.

As for me, I now possess the tools to go after what I want in life, whether personal or business, I have a self-love and confidence that did not exist before my coaching experience. The old (me) used to care more about what other people thought than to my own voice. This is the ultimate gift to myself, I made (me) a priority, now it is my opinion that counts, and I listen to my inner voice. I remember Einstein's famous quote, "mediocrity, is the great mind's greatest opposition". This is exactly what I was allowing myself to be. Mediocre, when I knew that deep inside lay the makings of someone with enormous creative potential just didn't know how to manifest these qualities into my life and replace old outdated beliefs with new positive ones. My coach touched all the areas of my life that needed to be addressed and one by one we brought my life to a level that I deserved to live at. Without her amazing capabilities I am positive that the road I am now traveling would lay much further ahead, with Andrea's help, she steered me in the right direction and I received a map that guided me swiftly to my inner and outer goals.

I would like to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU Andrea for your presence in my life and how grateful I am for your friendship and your uniqueness. You are a very special person and anyone who gets to experience your presence in his or her lives are forever changed. You have an incredible gift to bring the best out in people and this I admire and commend you for trying to make the world a better place. I wish for you all that you desire and more.

If you know of someone who could benefit from Andrea's fantastic coaching ability either for professional or personal or both, please do not hesitate, I fully recommend this experience. It will change your life! Andrea brought me to my bridge; let her bring you to your success.

Sincerely and gratefully,

C Doucet
