Testimony for Andrea Strom-Rancourt

Ever since I've started working with Andrea as my coach, I've noticed a lot more coherence and stability in my life. When I came to Andrea I had debts and I was confused about how to balance all of the overwhelming tasks and projects in my life. I felt lost.

While Andrea did not give me the solutions to my problems, she did listen carefully and guided me to find my own solutions - those that were right for me. In difficult times she helped me to think straight and follow through with my plan, despite a feeling of hopelessness. She helped me to rise above obstacles, thus I did not lose time due to confusion and depression.

Andrea helped me look forward and develop and plan out the best possible strategy to succeed in attaining my personal and professional goals.
